

BLANKET OF THORNS
D (CAPO 2)

V: 6- 1 4 5 3(7) 6-

You were one foot in and one foot gone
A silhouette forgotten and lost
Hard to reach
You couldn't sleep
So you packed a bag at dawn
You scarred my weathered heart
With callous love right from the start
And shattered the stone
So it goes
Another tattoo on my arm

CH: (4 5 1 4 5 6-) x 2

There was a comfort in your blanket of thorns
But when I tossed and turned
The blades they burned
And shook me to the bone
And the one thing that hurt the most
Is that I didn't get the rose

V:

We were a fever dream like no other
Bodies twisting beneath the covers
Heated cries
And hidden lies
Concealed in every corner
Because your love was red and soaked in anger
And I just couldn't see the danger
In letting you in
And once again
The petals fell layer after layer

CH:

There was a comfort in your blanket of thorns
But when I tossed and turned
The blades they burned
And shook me to the bone
And the one thing that hurt the most
Is that I didn't get the rose
