VERSE 1

Am F C G

Met you in a dive off 109, neon buzzin', sipping whiskey and wine.

Am F C G

Said you were weary of your God fearin' man, I said, "Hell Mam, I ain't the savin' kind."

Am F C G

My motel key hit the bartop hard, we crossed that line when you climbed into my car.

Am F G

I wake up smellin' of smoke and sin, now I'm tryin' to drink you off my skin.

CHORUS

Am F C G

It was an affair and a prayer, both burnin' out in the midnight air.

Am F C G

A hand on your hip, a curse on my tongue, two lost souls both comin' undone.

F C G Am

I'm beggin' the Lord, but He ain't there— for an affair and a prayer.

VERSE 2

Am F C G

Your memory is etched on my dashboard glass, The do not disturb sign says "kiss my ass"

Am F C G

You went back home to your holy man, left me here with a busted plan.

Am F C G

The smoke's still thick, the guilt's still mean, your lipstick stain where my cross should've been.

Am F G

I don't sleep much, I just curse and swear, at God, the devil, and your damn stare.

CHORUS

Am F C G
It was an affair and a prayer, a lie I loved, a truth I can't bear.
Am F C G
The whiskey's gone, but the hurt still stays, like a scar that won't fade away.
F C G Am
Yeah, I'm beggin' the Lord, but He don't care— 'bout an affair and a prayer. (He won't give a damn)

BRIDGE

F C
Ain't no mercy in motel sheets,
G Am
No redemption in the way we meet.
F C
You can cry His name or curse it loud,
G Am
Either way, we're both hell-bound.

CHORUS

Am F C G
It was an affair and a prayer, one burned fast, the other went nowhere.
Am F C G
Now I'm drivin' south can't take my mind of your stares
F C G Am
Yeah, I'm beggin' the Lord, but He ain't there— for an affair and a prayer.
